

Boutcher CE Primary School Curriculum Statement

The curriculum at Boutcher CE Primary School raises aspirations and achievement

Experiences:	Design:	Outcomes:
Will be: - Inclusive - Challenging - Fun - Close any cultural gap - Creative - Engaging - Varied - Linked to prior learning - Sequential - Worthwhile	Will include: - A welcoming appreciation of the fascination we received from understanding God's world - A clearly articulated learning sequence, built on prior learning - Use of pupil voice - Real experiences using educational visits, workshops, parents' lived experiences and themed weeks - An outcome - Reflection, evaluation and review - Application of basic skills including computing - Cross-curricular links where they add value - Develop personal, moral and spiritual values, including respect for others through carefully taught values, including respect for others through carefully taught values and the consistent implementation of the school ethos. - Promote children's physical and mental development and to appreciate the need for a healthy lifestyle - Inclusive and accessible, ensuring that all children are able to fully participate and thrive in their educational experience.	Measured by: - Observable thinking skills and habits of independent learning and self-reflection - Good standards and progress and achievement in all subjects - Children who enjoy and value learning - Children who know how to use their learning - Children who are well prepared and confident for the next step in their education - Children who can communicate effectively both orally and in writing - Express themselves creatively - Children understand their place in history and in the world - Children who are active and responsible members of the community upholding the British Values - Children who are critical thinkers able to understand and question objectively - Children who have a good understanding of contemporary issues and are able to act for justice for themselves, our community and the world, being a voice for good

The curriculum is underpinned and driven by an understanding of:

Our Christian vision rooted in Jesus' command to love one another. We nurture faith, cherish our school family and inspire fascination in learning – growing hearts and minds to live with love, purpose and wonder, just as Jesus did.

Our deep understanding of the vibrant and dynamic community we serve in Bermondsey—where a rich historical foundation and a continually evolving demographic come together to create a culturally diverse and inspiring environment.